

The Instruction for research paper Submission

1. Presented papers should not be previously published or under the consideration of publication.
2. The submitted paper should not exceed more than 10 pages.
3. Presented paper can be accepted in both Arabic and English languages.
4. The title of paper, the full name(s) of the authors, their titles, their affiliations and addresses, and their contact information all must be written in paper.
5. The paper should be written according to the template found on conference website.
6. Paper will only be considered if it sends as Word or PDF format via conference website not by post.
7. Researcher pays 100,000 ID as participation fees, PG student's researcher are free of fees and the university will host only one researcher for each participation paper.

Deadlines

- Submission 15/10/2018
- Notification 15/11/2018
- The last date for registration for the conference (for visiting researchers interested in the public and private sectors) a week before the conference.

4. Marketing the largest number of creative technical research for stakeholders in the sector (public, private and mixed), especially international and local companies, especially those located within the geographical area of the Southern Technical University.
5. Benefiting from the local and international scientific experiences among the researchers through scientific meetings and seminars during

Call for Papers

Conference research includes the following topics and not limited to:

• Management

- Sustainable management of business organizations
- Sustainability and business competitiveness

• Financial, accounting and auditing

- Sustainable Accounting
- Green Accounting
- The role of money in sustainable development
- Audit in the service of sustainable development

• Economic

- Dimensions economic development
- The sustainability of the Iraqi economy

Under the patronage of His Excellency the Minister of Higher Education and Scientific Research

Prof. Dr. Abdul Razak A. Al-Issa
And the supervision of
Prof. Dr. Mudhaffar S. Al-Zuhairi
President of the Southern Technical University

Under the slogan

Sustainability between reality, challenges and future prospects

The University holds
The 4th International Conference
From 18-19 December, 2018

Conference Objectives

1. Harness the research potentials on management and financial sustainability and its impact on economic development.
2. Sustain the progress and scientific prosperity of the country by attracting creative researchers in the fields of sustainability.
3. Exchange of ideas and scientific expertise for specialists in technical fields and provide an opportunity for professors, researchers and graduate students to see the latest scientific research idea in the subject of sustainable development.